

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Food and Nutrition Service
Administrative Review Branch

Rs Discount Gas & Tobacco,

Appellant,

v.

Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance,

Respondent.

Case Number: C0240218

FINAL AGENCY DECISION

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) finds that there is sufficient evidence to support the determination by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance to impose a permanent disqualification against Rs Discount Gas & Tobacco (“Appellant”) from participating as an authorized retailer in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

ISSUE

The purpose of this review is to determine whether the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance took appropriate action, consistent with Title 7 of Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 278.6(e)(1)(i) in its administration of SNAP when it imposed a permanent disqualification against Appellant on July 13, 2021.

AUTHORITY

According to 7 U.S.C. § 2023 and its implementing regulations at 7 CFR § 279.1, “A food retailer or wholesale food concern aggrieved by administrative action under § 278.1, § 278.6 or § 278.7 . . . may . . . file a written request for review of the administrative action with FNS.”

CASE CHRONOLOGY

The USDA conducted an investigation Appellant’s compliance with federal SNAP law and regulations during the period of February 11, 2021 through February 24, 2021. The investigation reported that personnel at Appellant accepted SNAP benefits in exchange for cash (trafficking) in the amount of $55 on one occasion and $30 on another occasion, as well as permitting the purchase of other major non-food items with SNAP benefits. The investigation revealed that two clerks were involved in the impermissible transactions.

As a result of evidence compiled from this investigation, the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance informed Appellant, in a letter dated May 17, 2021, that its firm was charged with violating the terms and conditions of the SNAP regulations, 7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1). This letter stated, in part, “As provided by Section 278.6(e)(1) of the SNAP regulations, the sanction for trafficking . . . is permanent disqualification.” The letter also states that “under certain conditions, FNS may impose a civil money penalty (CMP) . . . in lieu of a permanent disqualification of a firm for trafficking.”

Appellant replied to the charges in a subsequent letter to the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance. The record reflects that the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance received and considered this information prior to making a determination.

The Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance notified Appellant in a letter dated July 13, 2021 that the firm was being permanently disqualified from participation as an authorized retailer in SNAP in accordance with Section 278.6 (c) and 278.6(e)(1) for trafficking violations. This determination letter also stated that Appellant’s eligibility for a trafficking civil money penalty (CMP) according to the terms of Section 278.6(i) of the SNAP regulations was considered. However, the letter stated to Appellant that “. . . you are not eligible for the CMP because you failed to submit sufficient evidence to demonstrate that your firm had established and implemented an effective compliance policy and program to prevent violations of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program.”

On July 26, 2021, Appellant appealed the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance’s assessment and requested an administrative review of this action. The appeal was granted.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In an appeal of an adverse action, Appellant bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence that the administrative action should be reversed. That means Appellant has the burden of providing relevant evidence that a reasonable mind, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to support a conclusion that the argument asserted is more likely to be true than untrue.

CONTROLLING LAW

The controlling law in this matter is contained in the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended (7 U.S.C. § 2021), and implemented through regulation under Title 7 CFR Part 278. In particular, 7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1)(i) establishes the authority upon which a permanent disqualification may be imposed against a retail food store or wholesale food concern in the event that personnel of the firm have engaged in trafficking of SNAP benefits.

7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1)(i) reads, in part:

FNS shall . . . [d]isqualify a firm permanently if . . . personnel of the firm have trafficked as defined in § 271.2.

Trafficking is defined, in part, in 7 CFR § 271.2, as “the buying or selling of [SNAP benefits] or other benefit instruments for cash or consideration other than eligible food.”

APPELLANT’S CONTENTIONS

Appellant’s responses regarding this matter are essentially as follows:

- Not holding determinations in abeyance while a FOIA response is pending violates 7 CFR §278.6(b)(1) according to Triple E Express vs. ROD, Case No. C0191279 because Appellant is not given a full opportunity to respond.
- The clerk was operating independently of the store, and outside of the firm’s ability to control or have liability for.
- There is no corroborating evidence of trafficking. There are no serial numbers, investigator affidavits, details of transactions, or photos of the bills used in trafficking.
- FNS has the burden of proof to establish the allegations occurred.
- The investigative report is hearsay. Hearsay in administrative matters can only be relied upon if four conditions are met. Appellant cannot subpoena or depose the investigator. The investigative report should not be relied upon. Appellant cites U.S. Pipe & Foundry Co. v. Webb, and J.A.M. Builders, Inc. v. Herman.
- Appellant has been denied due process.
- Appellant requests a warning letter. Appellant provided a one-page profile of SNAP households in Appellant’s congressional district.
- Appellant requests a CMP.
- Appellant denies the allegations.

These explanations may represent only a brief summary of Appellant’s contentions. However, in reaching a decision, full consideration has been given to all contentions presented, including any others that have not been specifically listed here.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

As to Appellant’s denial of violations, this review examines the relevant information regarding the determination. Once the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance establishes a violation occurred, Appellant bears the burden of providing relevant evidence to support a conclusion, considering the record as a whole, that the permanent disqualification should be reversed. If this is not demonstrated, the case will be sustained. Without supporting evidence and rationale, assertions that the firm has not violated program rules do not constitute valid grounds for overturning the determination.

Appellant insists FNS has the burden of proof to establish the allegations occurred. As stated above, Appellant carries the burden of proof in the appeal of an adverse action.

Appellant contends the clerk was operating independently of the stores, and outside of the firm’s ability to control or have liability for. The clerk repeatedly conducted trafficking at Appellant, using Appellant’s EBT machine. When ownership signed the FNS application to become an authorized SNAP retailer, this included a certification and confirmation that the owner(s) would “accept responsibility on behalf of the firm for violations of the SNAP regulations, including those committed by any of the firm’s employees, paid or unpaid, new, full-time or part-time.” The violations listed on this certification document include trafficking. Regardless of whom the ownership of a store may utilize to operate the cash register and handle store business, ownership is accountable for the proper handling of SNAP benefit transactions. To allow store ownership to disclaim accountability for the acts of persons chosen to handle store business, would render the enforcement provisions of the Food and Nutrition Act and the enforcement efforts of the USDA virtually meaningless.

Appellant alleges not holding determinations in abeyance while FOIA responses are pending violates 7 CFR §278.6(b)(1) according to Triple E Express vs. ROD, Case No. C0191279 because Appellant is not given a full opportunity to respond. Effective October 26, 2020, the changes to 7 CFR §278.6 and 7 CFR §279.4 went into effect. These changes prohibit holding determinations and administrative reviews in abeyance while FOIA responses are pending. The finding in Triple E Express is based on outdated regulations.

Hearsay in Administrative Hearings

Appellant contends that the investigative report is hearsay. Appellant insists that as it cannot subpoena or depose the investigator the investigative report should not be relied upon. Appellant argues that that according to U.S. Pipe & Foundry Co. v. Webb and J.A.M. Builders, Inc. v. Herman hearsay is only admissible in this case if it meets four criteria: “(1) the Investigator was not biased and had no interest in the result of the case; (2) that [the owner] could have obtained the information contained in the statement before the hearing and subpoenaed the investigator; (3) the information is not inconsistent on its face; and (4) the information has been recognized by the courts has inherently reliable.” These cases also state hearsay must be reliable and credible.

However, the cases cited by Appellant refer to criteria for documents submitted into evidence in lieu of witness testimony in administrative hearings. Revisions to parts 278 and 279 of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program regulations eliminated administrative hearings. The revisions became effective September 8, 2003. Accordingly, these case citations are not relevant to this administrative review.

Egregiousness of Trafficking Violation

Appellant requests a warning letter. Neither the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, nor the accompanying regulations cite any minimum dollar amount of cash or SNAP benefits, or number of occurrences, for such exchanges to be defined as trafficking. Nor do they cite any degrees of seriousness pertaining to trafficking of SNAP benefits. Trafficking is always considered to be extremely serious, even when the exchange of SNAP benefits for cash is dollar-for-dollar or is conducted by a non-managerial store clerk. This is reflected in the Food and Nutrition Act, which reads, in part, that disqualification “shall be permanent upon . . . the first occasion of a disqualification based on . . . trafficking . . . by a retail food store.” In keeping with this legislative mandate, Section 278.6(e)(1)(i) of the SNAP regulations states that FNS must disqualify a firm permanently if personnel of the firm have trafficked. There is no agency discretion in the matter of what sanction is to be imposed when trafficking is involved.

No Denial of Due Process

Appellant contends that it has been denied due process. In this regard, the permanent disqualification of Appellant by the ROC is neither a criminal nor a civil action, but rather an administrative action imposed against the firm as a result of trafficking violations. Section 278.6(b)(1) of the SNAP regulations states that upon charging a firm with SNAP violations, the letter informing the firm of the charges “shall inform the firm that it may respond either orally or in writing to the charges contained in the letter within 10 days of receiving the letter.”

FNS’s due process procedures include two levels of review. First, the retailer is afforded an opportunity to reply to the charges leveled by the ROC. The regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(c) state:

in the case of a firm subject to permanent disqualification under paragraph (e)(1) of this section ... the determination shall inform such a firm that action to permanently disqualify the firm shall be effective immediately upon the date of receipt of the notice of determination from FNS, regardless of whether a request for review is filed in accordance with part 279 of this chapter.

After the determination letter is issued, the second level of due process involves an administrative review. Appellant availed itself of this option and in the process of which Appellant was granted 21 days to provide additional information in support of the request for review. Appellant took advantage of this opportunity and provided additional information.

The purpose of the administrative review process is to ensure that a firm aggrieved by FNS’s adverse actions has the opportunity for their position to be fairly considered by an impartial reviewing authority prior to that adverse action becoming final. Through the administrative review process, Appellant has been duly given, and has taken, the opportunity to present any evidence and information it deemed as pertinent in support of its position that the ROC’s adverse action should be reversed. All evidence and information that Appellant presented to the ROC, as well as any such information submitted subsequently, have now been considered in this administrative review prior to rendering the final agency decision. The firm provided no additional records during the administrative review that would establish that the suspicious transactions were legitimate purchases. The record does not indicate any departure from established procedures with regard to Appellant’s right to a fair and thorough review. Appellant has exercised its opportunity to reply to the charge letter and its administrative review rights. By doing so, it has availed itself of the full complement of the agency’s statutory obligations with regard to due process.

Evidence of Violation

Appellant contends there is no credible evidence of violations. As previously stated, 7 CFR § 278.6(a) states, in part:

FNS may disqualify any authorized retail food store . . . if the firm fails to comply with the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, or this part. Such disqualification shall result from a finding of a violation on the basis of evidence that may include facts established through on-site investigations . . . (Emphasis added.)

Appellant was provided a copy of the investigation report, redacted to protect the identity of the investigative operative, which details each occasion during which violations occurred, their dates, the amount of cash provided in exchange for SNAP benefits, and the descriptions and any comments of the clerk involved. The record also includes a photo of the bills used in trafficking. In contrast to Appellant's assertions, there is substantial evidence that the violations occurred.

CIVIL MONEY PENALTY

Appellant requested a civil money penalty (CMP) contending that it had established and implemented an effective compliance policy and program to prevent SNAP violations. According to 7 CFR § 278.6(i) of the SNAP regulations, FNS may impose a CMP in lieu of permanent disqualification for trafficking.

For an Appellant's request for a CMP to be considered, the regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(b)(2) require that Appellant submit supporting documentation within ten days of receipt of the charge letter. Appellant was advised of this provision in the charge letter of May 17, 2021. A review of the administrative record indicates Appellant did not submit documentation to support its eligibility for this alternative sanction by this deadline.

7 CFR § 278.6(i) sets forth the eligibility requirements for a CMP:

The firm shall, at a minimum, establish by substantial evidence its fulfillment of each of the following criteria:

Criterion 1: The firm shall have developed an effective compliance policy as specified in Section 278.6(i)(1); and,

Criterion 2: The firm shall establish that both its compliance policy and program were in operation at the location where the violation(s) occurred prior to the occurrence of violations cited in the charge letter sent to the firm; and,

Criterion 3: The firm had developed and instituted an effective personnel training program as specified in Section 278.6(i)(2); and,

Criterion 4: Firm ownership was not aware of, did not approve, did not benefit from, or was not in any way involved in the conduct or approval of trafficking violations; or it is the first occasion in which a member of firm management was aware of, approved, benefited from, or was involved in the conduct of any trafficking violations by the firm . .

In support of Appellant's contention that it is eligible for a CMP, it provided no documents. In this regard, the statement made by Appellant is not "substantial evidence" that fulfills each of the four criteria of 7 CFR § 278.6(i), demonstrating "that the firm had established and implemented an effective compliance policy and program to prevent violations."

The standards of eligibility for a trafficking CMP are high. They require substantial proof that a compliance policy and program was established and implemented prior to the occurrence of violations. These standards exist to thwart attempts to falsely present compliance policies and programs that were not actually implemented prior to violations. As Appellant did not provide the required supporting documentation, the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance did not assess a CMP. According to the requirements stated in 7 CFR § 278.6(b)(1), § 278.6(b)(2)(ii and iii), and § 278.6(i), Appellant is not eligible for a CMP in lieu of a permanent disqualification from participation as an authorized retailer in SNAP. The determination by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance to deny Appellant a civil money penalty is sustained.

CONCLUSION

Based on a review of the evidence, it appears that the program violations at issue did, in fact, occur as charged. As noted previously, the charges of violations are based on the findings of a formal USDA investigation. All transactions cited in the letter of charges were conducted under the supervision of a USDA investigator and all are fully documented. A review of this documentation has yielded no indication of error or discrepancy in any of the reported findings. Rather, the investigative record is specific and accurate with regard to the dates of the violations, the specific exchanges of SNAP benefits for cash, and in all other critically pertinent detail.

Based on the discussion above, the determination by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance to impose a permanent disqualification against Rs Discount Gas & Tobacco from participating as an authorized retailer in SNAP is sustained.

RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

Applicable rights to a judicial review of this decision are set forth in 7 U.S.C. § 2023 and 7 CFR § 279.7. If Appellant desires a judicial review, the complaint must be filed in the U.S. District Court for the district in which Appellant's owner resides, is engaged in business, or in any court of record of the State having competent jurisdiction. This complaint, naming the United States as the defendant, must be filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of this decision.

Under the Freedom of Information Act, we are releasing this information in a redacted format as appropriate. FNS will protect, to the extent provided by law, personal information that could constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

RICH PROULX
ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW OFFICER

October 4, 2021