

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Food and Nutrition Service
Administrative Review Branch

Happy House Way Inc,

Appellant,

v.

Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance,

Respondent.

Case Number: C0236808

FINAL AGENCY DECISION

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) finds that there is sufficient evidence to support the determination by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance to impose a permanent disqualification against Happy House Way Inc. (“Appellant”) from participating as an authorized retailer in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

ISSUE

The purpose of this review is to determine whether the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance took appropriate action, consistent with Title 7 of Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 278.6(e)(1)(i) in its administration of SNAP when it imposed a permanent disqualification against Appellant on February 22, 2021.

AUTHORITY

According to 7 U.S.C. § 2023 and its implementing regulations at 7 CFR § 279.1, “A food retailer or wholesale food concern aggrieved by administrative action under § 278.1, § 278.6 or § 278.7 . . . may . . . file a written request for review of the administrative action with FNS.”

CASE CHRONOLOGY

The USDA conducted an investigation Appellant’s compliance with federal SNAP law and regulations during the period of October 19, 2020 through October 20, 2020. The investigation reported that personnel at Appellant accepted 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) in SNAP benefits in exchange for cash (trafficking) in the amount 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) on one occasion and 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) on another occasion, as well as permitting the purchase of other non-food items with SNAP benefits. The investigation revealed that one clerk was involved in the impermissible transactions.

As a result of evidence compiled from this investigation, the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance informed Appellant, in a letter dated December 17, 2020, that its firm was charged with violating the terms and conditions of the SNAP regulations, 7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1). This letter stated, in part, “As provided by Section 278.6(e)(1) of the SNAP regulations, the sanction for trafficking . . . is permanent disqualification.” The letter also states that “under certain conditions, FNS may impose a civil money penalty (CMP) . . . in lieu of a permanent disqualification of a firm for trafficking.”

Appellant replied to the charges in a subsequent letter to the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance. The record reflects that the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance received and considered this information prior to making a determination.

The Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance notified Appellant in a letter dated February 22, 2021 that the firm was being permanently disqualified from participation as an authorized retailer in SNAP in accordance with Section 278.6 (c) and 278.6(e)(1) for trafficking violations. This determination letter also stated that Appellant’s eligibility for a trafficking civil money penalty (CMP) according to the terms of Section 278.6(i) of the SNAP regulations was considered. However, the letter stated to Appellant that “. . . you are not eligible for the CMP because you failed to submit sufficient evidence to demonstrate that your firm had established and implemented an effective compliance policy and program to prevent violations of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program.”

On March 8, 2021, Appellant appealed the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance’s assessment and requested an administrative review of this action. The appeal was granted.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In an appeal of an adverse action, Appellant bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence that the administrative action should be reversed. That means Appellant has the burden of providing relevant evidence that a reasonable mind, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to support a conclusion that the argument asserted is more likely to be true than untrue.

CONTROLLING LAW

The controlling law in this matter is contained in the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended (7 U.S.C. § 2021), and implemented through regulation under Title 7 CFR Part 278. In particular, 7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1)(i) establishes the authority upon which a permanent disqualification may be imposed against a retail food store or wholesale food concern in the event that personnel of the firm have engaged in trafficking of SNAP benefits.

7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1)(i) reads, in part:

FNS shall . . . [d]isqualify a firm permanently if . . . personnel of the firm have trafficked as defined in § 271.2.

Trafficking is defined, in part, in 7 CFR § 271.2, as “the buying or selling of [SNAP benefits] or other benefit instruments for cash or consideration other than eligible food.”

APPELLANT’S CONTENTIONS

Appellant’s responses regarding this matter are essentially as follows:

- Appellant submitted a profile of SNAP households located near Appellant as background material.
- Not holding determinations in abeyance while a FOIA response is pending violates 7 CFR §278.6(b)(1) according to Triple E Express vs. ROD, Case No. C0191279 because Appellant is not given a full opportunity to respond.
- USDA must prove that the store personnel knowingly and intentionally purchased items originally bought with SNAP benefits.
- The charge letter does not comply with 7 C.F.R. §278.6 because it is unclear whether two different investigators were engaged in the transactions listed in Exhibits A and B.
- The investigative report is worded to imply that the clerk came up with idea of purchasing Red Bull. It is more likely that the investigator suggested the purchase of Red Bull.
- Appellant denies the allegations.
- The investigative report is hearsay. Hearsay in administrative matters can only be relied upon if four conditions are met. Appellant cannot subpoena or depose the investigator. The investigative report should not be relied upon. Appellant cites U.S. Pipe & Foundry Co. v. Webb, and J.A.M. Builders, Inc. v. Herman.
- There is no evidence of trafficking, such as pictures of the alleged cash received during the transactions.
- Other similar ARB decisions have reversed the determinations.
- Due to the New York Uniform Commercial Code, retailers cannot be held accountable for indirect trafficking.

These explanations may represent only a brief summary of Appellant’s contentions. However, in reaching a decision, full consideration has been given to all contentions presented, including any others that have not been specifically listed here.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

Appellant denies the allegations and argues the USDA must prove that the store personnel knowingly and intentionally purchased items originally bought with SNAP benefits. This review examines the relevant information regarding the determination. Once the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance establishes a violation occurred, Appellant bears the burden of providing relevant evidence to support a conclusion, considering the record as a whole, that the permanent disqualification should be reversed. If this is not demonstrated, the case will be sustained. Without supporting evidence and rationale, assertions that the firm has not violated program rules do not constitute valid grounds for overturning the determination.

Appellant alleges not holding determinations in abeyance while FOIA responses are pending violates 7 CFR §278.6(b)(1) according to Triple E Express vs. ROD, Case No. C0191279 because Appellant is not given a full opportunity to respond. Effective October 26, 2020, the changes to 7 CFR §278.6 and 7 CFR §279.4 went into effect. These changes prohibit holding determinations and administrative reviews in abeyance while FOIA responses are pending. The finding in Triple E Express is based on outdated regulations.

Appellant contends that due to the New York Uniform Commercial Code, retailers cannot be held accountable for indirect trafficking. State laws do not supersede federal regulations regarding SNAP compliance.

Appellant contends the charge letter does not comply with 7 C.F.R. §278.6 because it is unclear whether two different investigators were engaged in the transactions listed in Exhibits A and B. Nothing in 7 C.F.R. §278.6 requires identifying whether the same investigator was involved in consecutive transactions in an undercover investigation. The investigative report states two investigators were involved in the investigation.

Appellant argues the investigative report is worded to imply that the clerk came up with idea of purchasing Red Bull, and that it is more likely that the investigator suggested the purchase of Red Bull. Appellant is correct that it is likely that the investigator proposed the purchase of Red Bull in this case.

Administrative Reviews not Precedent Setting

Appellant contends that the determinations should be reversed based on Final Agency Decisions in other cases. Prior administrative review decisions, as well as this decision, are not precedent setting as they are based on the specific circumstances of each case as documented by materials provided by the Appellant and the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance. Administrative review decisions do not establish policy or supersede federal law, regulations or policy guidance. The determination in this case conforms to SNAP regulations and is consistent with sanctions imposed upon other retailers that have committed similar violations.

Hearsay in Administrative Hearings

Appellant contends that the investigative report is hearsay. Appellant insists that as it cannot subpoena or depose the investigator the investigative report should not be relied upon. Appellant argues that that according to U.S. Pipe & Foundry Co. v. Webb and J.A.M. Builders, Inc. v. Herman hearsay is only admissible in this case if it meets four criteria: “(1) the Investigator was not biased and had no interest in the result of the case; (2) that [the owner] could have obtained the information contained in the statement before the hearing and subpoenaed the investigator; (3) the information is not inconsistent on its face; and (4) the information has been recognized by the courts has inherently reliable.” These cases also state hearsay must be reliable and credible.

However, the cases cited by Appellant refer to criteria for documents submitted into evidence in lieu of witness testimony in administrative hearings. Revisions to parts 278 and 279 of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program regulations eliminated administrative hearings. The revisions became effective September 8, 2003. Accordingly, these case citations are not relevant to this administrative review.

Evidence of Violation

There is no evidence of trafficking, such as pictures of the alleged cash received during the transactions. As previously stated, 7 CFR § 278.6(a) states, in part:

FNS may disqualify any authorized retail food store . . . if the firm fails to comply with the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, or this part. Such disqualification shall result from a finding of a violation on the basis of evidence that may include facts established through on-site investigations (Emphasis added.)

Appellant was provided a copy of the investigation report, redacted to protect the identity of the investigative operative, which details each occasion during which violations occurred, their dates, the amount of cash provided in exchange for SNAP benefits, and the descriptions and any comments of the clerk involved. Appellant has also received all file information requested under the Freedom of Information Act except information that is specifically exempt from disclosure by law. In contrast to Appellant's assertions, there is substantial evidence that the violations occurred.

CIVIL MONEY PENALTY

For a firm to have the opportunity to be considered for a civil money penalty (CMP), it must request that FNS consider a CMP in lieu of permanent disqualification and submit supporting documentation within ten days of receipt of the charge letter. Appellant was advised of these provisions in the charge letter of December 17, 2020. The regulations specify that such supporting documentation must demonstrate that the firm had established and implemented an effective SNAP compliance policy and training program prior to the occurrence of violations. A review of the administrative record indicates Appellant did not, at any time, request a CMP. Appellant also did not submit any documentation to support its eligibility for this alternative sanction, before or after the deadline.

In the absence of a request for a CMP and any supporting documentation, a CMP was not assessed by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance. According to the requirements stated in 7 CFR § 278.6(b)(1), § 278.6(b)(2)(ii and iii), and § 278.6(i), Appellant is not eligible for a CMP in lieu of a permanent disqualification from participation as an authorized retailer in SNAP. The determination by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance to deny Appellant a civil money penalty is sustained.

CONCLUSION

Based on a review of the evidence, it appears that the program violations at issue did, in fact, occur as charged. As noted previously, the charges of violations are based on the findings of a formal USDA investigation. All transactions cited in the letter of charges were conducted under the supervision of a USDA investigator and all are fully documented. A review of this documentation has yielded no indication of error or discrepancy in any of the reported findings. Rather, the investigative record is specific and accurate with regard to the dates of the violations, the specific exchanges of SNAP benefits for cash, and in all other critically pertinent detail.

Based on the discussion above, the determination by the Office of Retailer Operations and Compliance to impose a permanent disqualification against Happy House Way Inc. from participating as an authorized retailer in SNAP is sustained.

RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

Applicable rights to a judicial review of this decision are set forth in 7 U.S.C. § 2023 and 7 CFR § 279.7. If Appellant desires a judicial review, the complaint must be filed in the U.S. District Court for the district in which Appellant's owner resides, is engaged in business, or in any court of record of the State having competent jurisdiction. This complaint, naming the United States as the defendant, must be filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of this decision.

Under the Freedom of Information Act, we are releasing this information in a redacted format as appropriate. FNS will protect, to the extent provided by law, personal information that could constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

RICH PROULX
ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW OFFICER

April 26, 2021