Administrative Review Branch

Las Brisas,

Appellant,

v.

Case Number: C0197167

Retailer Operations Division,

Respondent.

FINAL AGENCY DECISION

It is the decision of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) that there is sufficient evidence to support a finding that the permanent disqualification of Las Brisas (Las Brisas or Appellant) from participation as an authorized retailer in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), as initially imposed by the Retailer Operations Division, was appropriate.

ISSUE

The issue accepted for review is whether the Retailer Operations Division took appropriate action, consistent with 7 CFR § 278.6(a), (c) and (e)(1) in its administration of the SNAP, when it assessed a permanent disqualification against Appellant.

AUTHORITY

7 USC § 2021 and the implementing regulations at 7 CFR § 279.1 provide that “A food retailer or wholesale food concern aggrieved by administrative action under § 278.1, § 278.6 or § 278.7 . . . may file a written request for review of the administrative action with FNS.”

CASE CHRONOLOGY

USDA conducted an investigation of the compliance of Appellant with federal SNAP law and regulations during the period from January 31, 2017, through May 2, 2017. The investigation report documents that personnel at Las Brisas exchanged SNAP benefits for cash during two of the compliance visits. The store employees also sold ineligible non-food items in exchange for SNAP benefits. The buying or selling of SNAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food is trafficking as defined under 7 CFR §271.2.

As a result of evidence compiled from the investigation, the Retailer Operations Division informed Appellant, in a letter dated December 15, 2017, that it was charged with violating the terms and conditions of the SNAP regulations. The letter stated, in relevant part, that:

...[Y]our firm is charged with trafficking, as defined in Section 271.2 of the SNAP regulations. As provided by Section 278.6(e)(1) of the SNAP regulations, the sanction for the trafficking violation(s) . . . is permanent disqualification.

The charge letter also stated that:

The SNAP regulations also provide that under certain conditions, FNS may impose a civil money penalty (CMP) of up to $59,000.00 in lieu of permanent disqualification of a firm for trafficking. The SNAP regulations, Section 278.6(i), list the criteria that you must meet in order to be considered for a CMP. If you request a CMP, you must meet each of the four criteria listed and provide the documentation as specified within 10 calendar days of your receipt of this letter.

Appellant did not reply to the charge letter. After considering the evidence, the Retailer Operations Division notified Appellant in a letter dated February 14, 2018, that the firm was permanently disqualified from participation as an authorized retailer in SNAP in accordance with Section 278.6(c) and § 278.6(e)(1) for trafficking violations. This determination letter further stated that Appellant was not eligible for a trafficking CMP because it failed to submit sufficient evidence to demonstrate that the firm had established and implemented an effective compliance policy and program to prevent violations of the SNAP.

In a letter postmarked February 22, 2018, Appellant appealed the Retailer Operations Division's determination and requested an administrative review. The appeal was granted.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In appeals of adverse actions, the Appellant bears the burden of proving by a clear preponderance of the evidence, that the administrative actions should be reversed. That means the Appellant has the burden of providing relevant evidence which a reasonable mind, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to support a conclusion that the matter asserted is more likely to be true than not true.

CONTROLLING LAW

The controlling statute in this matter is contained in the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC § 2021 and § 278 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). Part 278.6(a), (c) and (e)(1) establish the authority upon which a permanent disqualification may be imposed against a retail food store or wholesale food concern in the event that personnel of the firm have engaged in trafficking SNAP benefits.

7 CFR § 271.2 states, in part, that, “Eligible foods means: Any food or food product intended for human consumption except alcoholic beverages, tobacco and hot food and hot food products prepared for immediate consumption.”

7 CFR § 271.2 defines trafficking as: “(1) The buying, selling, stealing, or otherwise effecting an exchange of SNAP benefits issued and accessed via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, card numbers and personal identification numbers (PINs), or by manual voucher and signature, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone; . . .”

7 CFR § 278.6(a) states, inter alia, that “FNS may disqualify any authorized retail food store . . . if the firm fails to comply with the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, or this part. Such disqualification shall result from a finding of a violation on the basis of evidence that may include facts established through on-site investigations, inconsistent redemption data, evidence obtained through a transaction report under an electronic benefit transfer system, . . .” (emphasis added)

7 CFR § 278.6(b)(2)(ii) states, inter alia: “Firms that request consideration of a civil money penalty in lieu of a permanent disqualification for trafficking shall have the opportunity to submit to FNS information and evidence . . . that establishes the firm’s eligibility for a civil money penalty in lieu of a permanent disqualification in accordance with the criteria included in § 278.6(i). This information and evidence shall be submitted within 10 days, as specified in § 278.6(b)(1).”

7 CFR § 278.6(b)(2)(iii) states, “If a firm fails to request consideration for a civil money penalty in lieu of a permanent disqualification for trafficking and submit documentation and evidence of its eligibility within the 10 days specified in § 278.6(b)(1), the firm shall not be eligible for such a penalty.”

7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1) reads, in part, “FNS shall disqualify a firm permanently if personnel of the firm have trafficked as defined in § 271.2.”

7 CFR § 278.6(i) states, inter alia: “FNS may impose a civil money penalty in lieu of a permanent disqualification for trafficking . . . if the firm timely submits to FNS substantial evidence which demonstrates that the firm had established and implemented an effective compliance policy and program to prevent violations of the Program.”

INVESTIGATION DETAILS

During an investigation conducted from January 31, 2017, through May 2, 2017, four confidential informants under the direction of a USDA investigator conducted seven compliance visits at Las Brisas. The investigation report dated August 16, 2017, was provided to the Appellant as an attachment to the charge letter, and included Exhibits A through G which provide full details on the results of each compliance visit. The investigation report documents that SNAP violations were committed during six of the compliance visits. The investigation reported that personnel at Las Brisas exchanged 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) in cash for 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) in SNAP on one occasion and 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) in cash for 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) in benefits during another transaction. Transactions of this nature are referred to in regulatory terms as “trafficking”. During six of the visits, Appellant also exchanged common ineligible non-food items including dish liquid, fabric softener, sandwich bags, soap, and plastic cutlery for SNAP benefits.

APPELLANT’S CONTENTIONS

In its administrative review request postmarked February 22, 2018, Appellant provided the following summarized contentions, in relevant part:

- Ownership opened the store with his uncle in 2014.
- In December 2015, ownership moved to Arizona and asked his uncle to continue to run the store.
- In December 2017, ownership found out that his uncle did not change the permits and EBT to his name like they had agreed.
- The owner contacted his uncle and was told that there was someone else helping the uncle at the store.
- Ownership offers his sincere apologies and it was not his intention to violate any rules.

The preceding may represent only a brief summary of the Appellant’s contentions presented in this matter. However, in reaching a decision, full attention and consideration has been given to all contentions presented, including any not specifically recapitulated or specifically referenced.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

Appellant does not refute the charges. A full review of the case record shows that the charges of violations are based on the findings of a formal USDA investigation. The transactions cited in the letter of charges were conducted under the direction of a USDA investigator and are thoroughly documented. A complete review of this documentation has yielded no error or discrepancy. The investigation report is specific and thorough with regard to the dates of the violations, the specific facts related thereto, and is supported by documentation that confirms specific details of the transactions. The documentation presented by the Retailer Operations Division establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the violations as reported occurred at the Appellant store.

Ownership Involvement

Appellant explains that it opened the firm with his uncle in 2014. However, the record shows that there is one owner of record and the uncle was not listed. Ownership explains his uncle was in charge of the store when he moved. Although ownership was allegedly not involved in the violations, it cannot be accepted as a valid basis for dismissing any of the charges, or for mitigating the impact of those charges. Regardless of whom the ownership of a store may utilize to handle store business, the ownership is accountable for the proper training of staff and the monitoring and handling of SNAP benefit transactions. To allow store ownership to disclaim accountability for the acts of persons whom the ownership chooses to utilize to handle store business would render virtually meaningless the enforcement provisions of the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008 and the enforcement efforts of the USDA.

Ownership signed the FNS application to become a SNAP authorized retailer on December 7, 2014, which included a certification and confirmation that the owner would “accept responsibility on behalf of the firm for violations of the SNAP regulations, including those committed by any of the firm’s employees, paid or unpaid, new, full-time or part-time.” The violations listed on this certification include accepting SNAP benefits for cash and as payment for ineligible items, a violation of the SNAP rules and regulations. The regulations establish that an authorized food store may be disqualified from participating in the program when the store fails to comply with the Act or regulations. FNS sends all firms the SNAP Retailer Training Guide and instructional video in their approval package and requires ownership to share it with all employees to ensure compliance with rules and regulations. Firms are required to read the SNAP Retailer Training Guide and watch the instructional video. These training materials are available in other languages.

Intent to Violate

Appellant contends that it did not intend to violate any SNAP regulations. In response to this contention, the definition of trafficking contained in the SNAP regulations at 7 CFR § 271.2 does not require an element of intent on the part of the violator. Therefore, whether or not the Appellant firm or its employees intended to violate SNAP regulations by exchanging cash for SNAP benefits is irrelevant.

CIVIL MONEY PENALTY

Appellant did not request consideration for a trafficking CMP in lieu of a permanent disqualification under 7 CFR 278.6(i) even though it was informed of the right to do so in the charge letter. Even if a timely request had been submitted, Appellant would likely not have been eligible for a trafficking CMP in lieu of disqualification because there is insufficient evidence to demonstrate that the firm had established and implemented an effective SNAP compliance policy and program prior to the violations. Therefore, the Retailer Operations Division’s decision not to impose a trafficking CMP in lieu of disqualification is sustained as appropriate pursuant to 7 CFR § 278.6(i).

CONCLUSION

SNAP regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(e)(1)(i) reads, in part, “FNS shall disqualify a firm permanently if personnel of the firm have trafficked as defined in § 271.2.” Trafficking is defined, in part, in 7 CFR § 271.2, as “the buying or selling of SNAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food.” The law and regulations do not provide for a lesser period of disqualification for this violation.

Based on a review of the evidence in this case, there is no question that program violations did occur during a USDA investigation. Therefore, the decision to impose a permanent disqualification against Appellant, Las Brisas is sustained.

RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

Applicable rights to a judicial review of this decision are set forth in 7 USC § 2023 and 7 CFR § 279.7. If a judicial review is desired, the Complaint, naming the United States as the defendant, must be filed in the U.S. District Court for the district in which the Appellant's owner resides or is engaged in business, or in any court of record of the State having competent jurisdiction. If any Complaint is filed, it must be filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of this Decision.
