M & M Food Mart,

Appellant,

V.

Retailer Operations Division,

Respondent.

Case Number: C0229492

FINAL AGENCY DECISION

It is the decision of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS), that there is sufficient evidence to support a finding that a Transfer of Ownership Civil Money Penalty (TOCMP) of $22,000.00 was properly levied by the Retailer Operations Division against the former owner of M & M Food Mart, (hereinafter Appellant) for selling and/or transferring a store that was permanently disqualified from participation in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

ISSUE

The issue accepted for review is whether Retailer Operations Division took appropriate action, consistent with 7 CFR § 278.6(f)(2), (3), (4) and § 278.6(g), in its administration of the SNAP when it assessed a TOCMP in the amount of $22,000.00 against Appellant by letter dated May 18, 2020.

AUTHORITY

7 USC § 2023 and the implementing regulations at 7 CFR § 279.1 provide that “A food retailer or wholesale food concern aggrieved by administrative action under § 278.1, § 278.6 or § 278.7 . . . may file a written request for review of the administrative action with FNS.”

CASE CHRONOLOGY

The administrative record documents that the firm and ownership were permanently disqualified from participation in the SNAP effective July 8, 2019. Ownership was informed in correspondence dated May 24, 2019 that “In the event that you sell or transfer ownership of your store subsequent to your disqualification, you will be subject to and liable for a CMP as provided by SNAP regulations sections 278.6(f)(2), (3) and (4). The amount of this sale or transfer CMP will be calculated based on SNAP regulations 278.6(g).” Appellant was again notified in correspondence dated July 3, 2019, that “In the event any retail food store or wholesale food concern which has been disqualified is sold or the ownership thereof is otherwise transferred to a purchaser or transferee, the person or other legal entity who sells or otherwise transfers ownership of the retail food store or wholesale food concern shall be subjected to and liable for a civil money penalty in an amount of reflect that portion of the disqualification period that has not expired, to be calculated using the method found at §278.6(g).”

The case file contains documents that shows effective January 28, 2020, ownership sold or transferred the store named M & M Food Mart located at 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C), Springfield, MA 49015, reflecting the sale of the business 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C), including all fixtures, furniture, equipment and inventory and business licenses as outlined in the Bill of Sale. These documents were provided to FNS when the new store owner applied to operate as an authorized SNAP retailer at this location.

Retailer Operations Division informed Appellant by letter dated May 18, 2020, that a TOCMP in the amount of $22,000.00 was being assessed against it in accordance with the SNAP regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(f)(2), (3), (4) and § 278.6(g) for the sale or transfer of the firm during a period of disqualification.

By letter dated May 23, 2020, Appellant appealed Retailer Operations Division’s assessment of the TOCMP and requested an administrative review of this action. The appeal was granted and implementation of the sanction has been held in abeyance pending completion of this review.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In appeals of adverse actions, the Appellant bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence, that the administrative actions should be reversed. That means the Appellant has the burden of providing relevant evidence which a reasonable mind, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to support a conclusion that the matter asserted is more likely to be true than not true.

CONTROLLING LAW

The controlling statute in this matter is contained in the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC § 2021 and § 278 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). Part 278.6(f)(2) establishes the authority upon which a civil money penalty may be imposed against a disqualified retail food store or wholesale food concern in the event that it has been sold or the ownership is otherwise transferred.

7 U.S.C. § 2021(e)(1) states, in part: “In the event any retail food store or wholesale food concern that has been disqualified under subsection (a) of this section is sold or the ownership thereof is otherwise transferred to a purchaser or transferee, the person or persons who sell or otherwise transfer ownership of the retail food store or wholesale food concern shall be subjected to a civil penalty in an amount established by the Secretary through regulations to reflect that portion of the disqualification period that has not yet expired.” [Emphasis added]

7 CFR § 278.6(f)(2) reads, in part, “In the event any retail food store . . . which has been disqualified is sold or the ownership thereof is otherwise transferred to a purchaser or transferee, the person or other legal entity who sells or otherwise transfers ownership . . . shall be subjected to and liable for a civil money penalty”

7 CFR § 278.6(f)(3) reads, in part, “. . .the Food and Consumer Service may request the Attorney General institute a civil action to collect the penalty from the person or persons subject to the penalty in a district court of the United States. . . .”

7 CFR § 278.6(f)(4) reads, in part, “A bona fide transferee of a retail food store shall not be required to pay a civil money penalty imposed on the firm prior to its transfer.”

7 CFR § 278.6(g), provides for the amount of civil money penalties for hardship and transfer of ownership. It reads, “FNS shall determine the amount of the civil money penalty as follows:

- (1) Determine the firm’s average monthly redemptions of coupons for the 12-month period ending with the month immediately preceding that month during which the firm was charged with violations.
- (2) Multiply the average monthly redemption figure by 10 percent.
- (3) Multiply the product arrived at in paragraph (g)(2) by the number of months for which the firm would have been disqualified under paragraph (e) of this section. The civil money penalty may not exceed an amount specified in § 3.91(b)(3)(i) of this title for each violation.”

7 CFR § 278.6(g) and § 3.91(b)(3)(i) and internal agency policy establish an $11,000.00 per violation limit as the maximum amount for a TOCMP. The Act, at Section 12(e)(1), states: “In the event any retail food store or wholesale food concern that has been disqualified under subsection (a) is sold or the ownership thereof is otherwise transferred to a purchaser or transferee, the person who sells or otherwise transfers ownership of the retail food store or wholesale food concern shall be subjected to a civil penalty in an amount established by the Secretary through regulations to reflect that portion of the disqualification period that has not yet expired. If the retailer food store has been disqualified permanently, the civil penalty shall be double the penalty for a ten year disqualification period, as calculated under regulations issued by the Secretary.”

APPELLANT’S CONTENTIONS

The Appellant made the following summarized contentions in its response to Retailer Operations Division’s determination and in the request for administrative review, in relevant part:

1. The firm was a separate business entity formed under the state laws of Michigan, in which I was the sole owner.
2. The firm was not sold nor was its ownership transferred. Rather a substantial portion of its assets only were sold to an independent third-party purchaser.
3. The sale was not in any way intended to violate any applicable rules, but rather a continuation of my efforts to sell a firm which was challenging to operate because of the inability to find competent and trustworthy employees.

4. Neither the firm nor I made any profit on the operation of the business in 2019. Also the sale of the assets in 2020 will show as a loss.

The preceding may represent only a brief summary of ownership's contentions in this matter, however, in reaching a decision, full attention and consideration has been given to all contentions presented, including any not specifically recapitulated or specifically referenced herein.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

With regard to Appellant's contentions the record reflects that in the charge letter dated May 24, 2019, the Appellant was informed of program violations and in the event that the firm was sold or transferred subsequent to its disqualification, ownership would be subject to and liable for a civil money penalty as provided by SNAP regulations. Appellant was also informed of the permanent disqualification of M & M Food Mart, as a SNAP retailer by letter dated July 3, 2019, and again informed that in the event the firm was sold or transferred subsequent to its disqualification, ownership would be subject to and liable for a civil money penalty as provided by SNAP regulations. The business was sold 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) which included all fixtures, furniture, equipment, inventory and business licenses as outlined in the Bill of Sale. In summary, the Appellant was properly informed that a TOCMP would be assessed if M & M Food Mart was sold or otherwise transferred after it was permanently disqualified from the SNAP.

The sole issue in this review is whether Retailer Operations Division took appropriate action, consistent with 7 CFR § 278.6(f)(2) of the SNAP regulations, when it assessed a $22,000.00 TOCMP against the Appellant.

TOCMP Calculation

The case record documents that, under 7 CFR § 278.6(g), Retailer Operations Division correctly calculated the amount of the TOCMP. That regulation states that the TOCMP is to be calculated on a formula which includes the SNAP redemption volume of the store during the 12 months prior to the firm being notified of the violations that led to the store's disqualification. Modifications to the TOCMP may occur only when there is an error in calculation or the amount exceeds the agency limit.

The Retailer Operations Division correctly determined that, using the methodology described in 7 CFR § 278.6(g), the initial calculated amount of the TOCMP was 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C). However, the Retailer Operations Division determined that the initial calculated TOCMP is above the agency limit, which is $11,000 per violation. The May 24, 2019, trafficking charge letter identified two (2) patterns of trafficking based on EBT redemption data. Therefore, the Retailer Operations Division correctly assessed the final TOCMP at $22,000.00, which is the agency limit per violation multiplied by the number of trafficking patterns ($11,000.00 x 2 patterns of trafficking).

Summary

It is important to note that the purpose of this review is limited to determining whether Retailer Operations Division's decision to assess a TOCMP against the Appellant was appropriate. The regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(f)(2) require FNS to assess a TOCMP against the owner of a disqualified retail food store that has been sold or the ownership is otherwise transferred. Moreover, the regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(g) outline how to calculate the amount of this TOCMP utilizing the aforementioned formula. As such, there is no discretion in the calculation or abatement of the TOCMP amount. The record demonstrates that a bona fide legal sale/transfer of M & M Food Mart did occur.

CONCLUSION

A review of the evidence in this case indicates that M & M Food Mart was sold and/or transferred on January 28, 2020. Therefore, 7 CFR § 278.6(f) of the SNAP regulations is applicable, and the assessment of a TOCMP is correct. A review of the calculations per 7 CFR § 278.6(g) indicates that the amount of the TOCMP assessed by Retailer Operations Division is also correct. Thus, the action by Retailer Operations Division is sustained.

RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

Your attention is called to Section 14 of the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, (7 U.S.C. § 2023) and to Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 279.7 (7 CFR § 279.7) with respect to your right to a judicial review of this determination. Please note that if a judicial review is desired, the Complaint, naming the United States as the defendant, must be filed in the U.S. District Court for the district in which you reside or are engaged in business, or in any court of record of the State having competent jurisdiction.
