Quick Mart Food Store,

Appellant,

v.

Retailer Operations Division,

Respondent.

Case Number: C0213325

FINAL AGENCY DECISION

It is the decision of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) that the record supports that Quick Mart Food Store (Appellant) committed violations of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) regulations. There is sufficient evidence to sustain a six month disqualification of Appellant from the SNAP as imposed by the Retailer Operations Division (Retailer Operations).

ISSUE

The issue accepted for review is whether Retailer Operations took appropriate action in its administration of the SNAP, consistent with 7 CFR § 278.6(f)(1), 7 CFR § 278.6(a), and 7 CFR § 278.6(e), when it imposed a six month period of disqualification against Appellant.

AUTHORITY

7 U.S.C. § 2023, and the implementing regulations at 7 CFR § 279.1, provide that a food retailer aggrieved by administrative action under § 278.1, § 278.6, or § 278.7, may file a written request for review of the administrative action with the Food and Nutrition Service (FNS).

CASE CHRONOLOGY

The USDA conducted an investigation of the compliance of Appellant with federal SNAP law and regulations during the period of November 20, 2018 through May 23, 2019. The investigative report documented that personnel at Appellant accepted SNAP benefits in exchange for ineligible merchandise on multiple separate occasions that warrant a six month disqualification period. The items sold on multiple dates are best described as common nonfood items, including cigarettes.

As a result of evidence compiled during the investigation, by letter dated June 20, 2019, Retailer Operations charged the owner with violating the terms and conditions of the SNAP regulations. Misuse of SNAP benefits was noted in Exhibits A, B, C, D, and E, that warrants a disqualification as a SNAP retail food store for a period of six months. The letter also states that under certain conditions FNS may impose a civil money penalty (CMP) in lieu of a disqualification.

The record includes a reply to the Charge letter dated June 23, 2019. Retailer Operations informed the owner by Determination letter dated July 8, 2019, that the violations cited in the Charge letter occurred at the firm and that a six month period of disqualification was warranted. The letter also stated that eligibility for a hardship CMP was not applicable as there are other authorized retail food stores in the area selling as large a variety of staple foods at comparable prices.

The owner appealed the determination by letter dated July 10, 2019. The administrative review was granted by letter dated August 19, 2019.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

In an appeal of an adverse action, the Appellant bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence, that the administrative action should be reversed. That means the Appellant has the burden of providing credible, relevant evidence that a reasonable mind, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to support a conclusion that the argument asserted is more likely to be true than not true.

CONTROLLING LAW AND REGULATIONS

The controlling statute in this matter is contained in the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 U.S.C. § 2021 and § 278 of Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). Sections 278.6(a) and (e)(5) establish the authority upon which a six month disqualification may be imposed against a retail food store.

7 CFR § 278.2(a) states: “Coupons may be accepted by an authorized retail food store only from eligible households or the households’ authorized representative, and only in exchange for eligible food.”

7 CFR § 278.6(e)(5) of the SNAP regulations states that a firm is to be disqualified for six months “if it is to be the first sanction for the firm and the evidence shows that personnel of the firm have committed violations such as but not limited to the sale of common nonfood items due to carelessness or poor supervision by the firm’s ownership or management.”

7 CFR § 278.6(a) states: “FNS may disqualify any authorized retail food store if the firm fails to comply with the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, or this part. Such disqualification shall result from a finding of a violation on the basis of evidence that may include facts established through on-site investigations, inconsistent redemption data, evidence obtained through a transaction report under an electronic benefit transfer system.”

7 CFR § 278.6(f)(1) provides for civil money penalty assessments in lieu of disqualification in cases where disqualification would cause hardship to SNAP benefit households because of the unavailability of a comparable participating food store in the area to meet their shopping needs. It states: “FNS may impose a civil money penalty as a sanction in lieu of disqualification when the firm’s disqualification would cause hardship to SNAP benefit households because there is no other authorized retail food store in the area selling as large a variety of staple food items at comparable prices.”

SUMMARY OF THE CHARGES

A report of the investigation was provided to the Appellant as Exhibits with the Charge letter. The investigative report provides details on the results of each compliance visit. The investigative report documents that SNAP violations were recorded during multiple store visits that warrant a six month disqualification. The SNAP violations of 7 CFR § 278.2(a) involved the sale of nonfood items for benefits including: laundry detergent, bath tissue, cigarettes, and lawn and leaf bags.

APPELLANT’S CONTENTIONS

Consideration of all contentions was made whether recapitulated here or not.

- We apologize for the violations. We have taken several steps to deter any other violations from occurring regarding EBT transactions.
- Two of the employees have left their jobs on their own free will.
- The third chose to remain under the conditions that we gave him. To study and learn the guidelines as to which items are eligible for EBT and which are not.
- We have therefore advised him, with proper supervision, to study the SNAP regulations.
- Any and every other employee which we hire, will be also told to learn the regulations.
- We sincerely wish to comply with all the regulations regarding SNAP benefits.
- We have already instructed our current employees to read and study the SNAP regulations, by logging into your website, and will instruct any future employees, to also log in, read and understand the regulations, regarding EBT/SNAP sales. That is, which merchandise is allowed, and which is not.
- We have been in business for almost 10 years, and this has not happened before.
- We regret that these infractions occurred. We have taken the necessary steps to make sure that it does not happen again.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

This review is to either validate or to invalidate the determination made by Retailer Operations; it is limited to the facts at the basis of Retailer Operations' determination at the time it was made. Upon review, the evidence supports that Appellant established a record of selling nonfood items as defined by Section 271.2 of the regulations, on multiple occasions. The Exhibits furnished with the Charge letter warrant a disqualification period of six months. The regulations at 7 CFR § 278.6(e)(5) specify that FNS shall "disqualify the firm for six months if it is to be the first sanction for the firm and the evidence shows that personnel of the firm have committed violations such as, but not limited to, the sale of nonfood items due to carelessness or poor supervision by the firm's ownership or management." Three violations are considered evidence of carelessness. Therefore, the violations in this case are not too limited to warrant a disqualification.

Regardless of who the store owner utilizes to handle store business, ownership is accountable for the proper handling of SNAP benefit transactions. The regulations establish that an authorized food store may be disqualified from participating in SNAP when the store fails to comply with the Act or regulations because of the wrongful conduct of an owner, manager, or someone acting on their behalf. The regulations stipulate that FNS disqualify the firm for six months if it is to be the first sanction for the firm, and the evidence shows that personnel of the firm have committed violations such as but not limited to as the sale of common nonfood items due to carelessness and poor supervision by the firm's ownership or management.

A record of participation in the SNAP with no previously documented instance of violations does not constitute valid grounds for dismissal of the current charges of violations. There is no provision in the Act, or regulations, that reverses or reduces a sanction based upon a lack of prior violations by a firm and its owners, managers and/or employees.

The responses advanced by the owner contend that SNAP training has been given to employees. This review is limited to what circumstances were at the basis of Retailer Operations' action at the time such action occurred. It is not the authority of this review to consider what subsequent remedial actions may be undertaken so that an authorized store might begin to comply with program regulations. There are no provisions in the SNAP regulations for waiver or reduction of an administrative penalty on the basis of after-the-fact corrective actions implemented subsequent to findings of program violations. Therefore, the owner's contentions that corrective actions have been taken, do not provide a valid basis for dismissing the charges or the corresponding penalty.

The charges of violations are based on the findings of a formal U.S. Department of Agriculture investigation. All the transactions are fully documented in the record, and a review of this documentation has yielded no indication of error or discrepancy in the reported findings. The investigative record is specific and thorough with regard to the dates of the violations, the specific facts related to the sales of nonfood items, and in all other critically pertinent detail. The preponderance of the evidence supports that Appellant sold nonfood items on multiple store visits in exchange for SNAP benefits, a program violation.

CIVIL MONEY PENALTY

Retailer Operations rendered a finding that it was not appropriate to impose a CMP in lieu of a six month period of disqualification from SNAP. The record documents that there are other authorized stores within a nearby radius of Appellant that stock a variety of comparable staple foods at comparable prices. The evidence does not support that it will cause hardship for SNAP recipients if Appellant is disqualified. Therefore, Appellant is not eligible for a hardship CMP.

CONCLUSION

The preponderance of the evidence in the record supports that the program violations charged did occur at Appellant. The responding owner did not dispute that violations occurred. The record documents that Retailer Operations considered Appellant's eligibility for a hardship CMP according to the terms of Section 278.6(f)(1) of the regulations, and properly denied it. Therefore, the six month disqualification of Appellant from participation as an authorized retail food store in the SNAP is sustained.

RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

This penalty shall become effective thirty (30) days after receipt of this decision. A new application for participation in the SNAP may be submitted ten (10) days prior to the expiration of the six month period of disqualification.
